Canticle of Creation

In the beginning, Lord God,
You alone existed: eternally one
yet pregnant in the fullness of unity.

Full to overflowing,
You, Father of All Life, exploded outward
in a billion bits and pieces.

Your Words became flesh,
whirling in shining stars, shimmering suns
and in genesis glimmering galaxies.

You, my God, spoke,
and Your Words became flesh:
in sun and moon, earth and seas,
mountains and gentle hills,
rolling rivers and silent streams.

You, my God, spoke,
and Your Words became flesh:
in winged bird, in deer and elephant,
in grazing cow, racing horse and fish of the deep.

Your Words, so unique and so varied,
filled the earth also with rabbit, squirrel and ant.

And all Your Words were beautiful,
and all were good.

From each of these holy Words
arose a prayer of praise and adoration
to You, their creator
and wondrous womb.

"Praise You," rang out the redwood,
"Blessed be You," chimed in the cedar,
"Holy are You," prayed the prairie grasses.

From all four corners of this earth,
rose up a chorus of perpetual adoration.

O Sacred Spirit, O Divine Breath of Life,
unseal my ears that they may ever listen
to Your continuous canticle of creation;
open my heart and my whole self,
to sing in harmony with all its many voices.

Teach me to commune with Your first Word made
flesh,
Your Creation,
that I may be able to unravel the wondrous words
of Your second Word made flesh, Jesus,
through whom, with whom and in whom,
I may see myself as another Word of Yours made
flesh,
to Your glory and honor.
Amen

Swine Flu

The Diocese of Monterey shares your concern over the swine flu outbreak. Given that California is a state that shares a common border with Mexico and given that this time of year many people travel frequently to places where the flu has already been detected, this concern is valid.

Effective immediately, communion will be distributed to the faithful under the form of bread only. In addition, distribution of the bread will be in the hand only. This is a temporary action and not one that should be interpreted as pulling back on the practice of offering communion from the Cup.

Help! Help!

The RCIA library has a number of missing books. Kindly return to Sister Joan's office ASAP. Thank you.

THANK YOU

The Respect Life Committee would like to express our sincere appreciation to Father Matt and assisting parish staff for their help in the enormous success of the F.O.C.A. post card campaign. Thank you to parishioners and volunteers.

Life Teen Mission Trip Update

Our 2009 trip will be going to St. Jude Rebuild in New Orleans. It is one of many ongoing rebuild/renewal projects helping the Gulf rise from the devastation left from Hurricane Katrina in 2005. There is still a lot of work there and it is expected to continue for years.

Thanks to the generosity of St. Joseph's Community, in conjunction with Catholic Charities of Monterey Diocese, Life Teen is able to participate in this mission work.

Our trip is scheduled for June 14th – 21st.

Thanks for all your prayers and support,
Hal & Deborah Rovick -Life Teen Coordinators
