“Being Catholic: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow”

Why are babies baptized during Mass? Has the church’s view of sin changed? Just what is Catholic morality? What is an “informed conscience” and what role does conscience play in one’s faith life? These and many other questions will be discussed in a safe environment during our next series of “Being Catholic” classes. Being Catholic: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow is a six week process for parishioners interested in deepening their knowledge of faith. Being Catholic provides an in-depth exploration of topics like: Faith, Jesus, Bible, Sacraments, Morality and Church. It is not a classroom lecture, but it is a group dynamic with interesting presentations, discussions and readings.

Being Catholic: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow is a six week process for parishioners interested in deepening their knowledge of faith. Being Catholic provides an in-depth exploration of topics like: Faith, Jesus, Bible, Sacraments, Morality and Church. It is not a classroom lecture, but it is a group dynamic with interesting presentations, discussions and readings.

The adult faith formation team invites you to an opportunity to upgrade another area of your life - your faith life - by enrolling in the class “Being Catholic: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow.”

The class will be offered on six Tuesday evenings beginning September 8th - Oct 13, 7 p.m. in Mary Room in the Church offices, ending with a retreat: Saturday September 17th 8:30 a.m. – 1 pm..

Here is what those who have taken the class have said:

I found a few kindred spirits and some practice in being patient with others who were at a different place in their faith journey.

I enjoyed the opportunity to meet people and talk openly about my faith.

The class validated my faith and my approach to being Catholic.

It was good to know that questioning is not wrong and that it can deepen my faith and that we all have questions.

I liked the diversity of small groups.

It made me proud of my Catholic heritage and gave me a better and deeper understanding of my Catholic Community. The most valuable, informative, supportive program I have ever participated in.

To register call the parish office at 475-8211 or if you have any questions, call Therese at 475-8211, ext. 29.
